LOVE BLOSSOMS AT THE CITY OF LAKES

A sense of awe and curiosity is aroused when one talks about India – fabled for its culture, history and artistic magnificence. India has never failed to impress, and would make a great destination for Valentine’s Day.

Maharaja's Lake House, Udaipur

Quite rightfully, the majestic Taj Mahal occupies the throne of romance in India, and undoubtedly one of the world’s greatest declarations of love. But as beautiful as the Taj Mahal may be, there are other gems in India that are of equal splendour, just waiting to be explored.

One of those places is Udaipur, considered by travellers to be one of the most romantic cities in the world, and also known as the Venice of the East.

>> While famous for its captivating lakes, the city offers the holidaying couple plenty of distractions, with lake cruises, camel rides, relaxing spa treatments and a tour of the wildlife conservatory are some of the many activities offered.

Watermarked by whimsy, splendour and romance, Udaipur is undoubtedly a dream destination for a romantic holiday. The lakeside setting and spectacular sights ensure that it’s a holiday that will live long in your memories.
